agency identified the assets as "7B and C, Doctor's Lane, Gole Market" and said they have been provisionally attached under the provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA).
 The immovable assets belong to Sinh and his estranged wife Manoranmoney laundering case before the special court under PMLA at Kolkata," the agency said.

 This is the fifth attachment order issued by the agency in the case where gullible investors from West Bengal and Assam were allegedly cheated of their hard-earned money worth crores.
 With the latest action, ED has so far attached properties worth ₹700 crore in this case.
 An attachment under PMLA is aimed to deprive the accused from obtaining benefits of their ill-gotten wealth and such an order can be appealed before the Adjudicating Authority of the said Act within 180 days.
